The City Election

As the time for the Carmel city elections approaches, which is on Monday, April 12, interest is growing. However, many citizens have yet to register, and there remains but today and tomorrow to do so.

The terms of Trustees A. P. Fraser and Peter will expire next month, and it is probable they will not be candidates for re-election. Mrs. G. P. Wickham, present City Clerk, will take a position in the local postoffice, so that a new clerk will have to be elected. L. S. Slevin is the present City Treasurer and will probably succeed himself without opposition.

At the solicitation of many of the townspeople Thos. B. Reardon and Frederick R. Bechdolt will be candidates for Trustee. Two better equipped men for the positions could not be selected.

To date the only candidacy announced for City Clerk is that of Miss Saidee Van Brower, long a Carmel resident and property owner.

Put a house on that vacant lot of yours. It will bring you a satisfactory income.

Boosts and Knocks

By Observer

Family Soup was on the bill of fare at Curtis' the other day. I asked the boss whence the name. "Well," he said, "one of us put in the vegetables, another seasoned it, someone else cooked it; in fact the whole family had a hand in it."

Here's real optimism and attention to civic duty. Colonel George S. Terry, still on crutches, was making his way slowly to the Pine Cone office the other day. "Well, how are you, Colonel," shouted a friend. "Fine—I'm going up to register."

Returning home from the Manzanita movies last Saturday night, a man was greeted by his wife thus: "Is that you, George?" "Yes," said George, "Who was you expecting?"

A young man in this town, having in mind a poker session he had attended, remarked to himself, but loud enough to be heard, "I never saw such remarkable hands." The young lady close by looked up from her book, and asked, "Are you a pickpocket expert?"

If we had a Grand Jury in Carmel, here are some of the counts upon which indictments would be found:

Not a loaf of bread in town.
Coming all the way up town without your Postoffice key.
The telephone out of order.
The butcher shop closed.
Missing the stage by one minute
The lights shut off when you're about to begin a thrilling chapter.

Mr. Henpecke and Mr. Nagge attended the Carmel movies the other night, and between the reels they agreed that that the most consoling thing about the show is seeing women in the pictures opening their mouths and not being heard.

A man here, inviting a doctor friend to take the rest cure in Carmel, telegraphed as follows:

"Come on to Carmel and away from the strife.
Leave business and cares, probes, scissors and knife.
Pack your grips, slam the door, take the sons, bring your wife.
Add life to your years and years to your life."

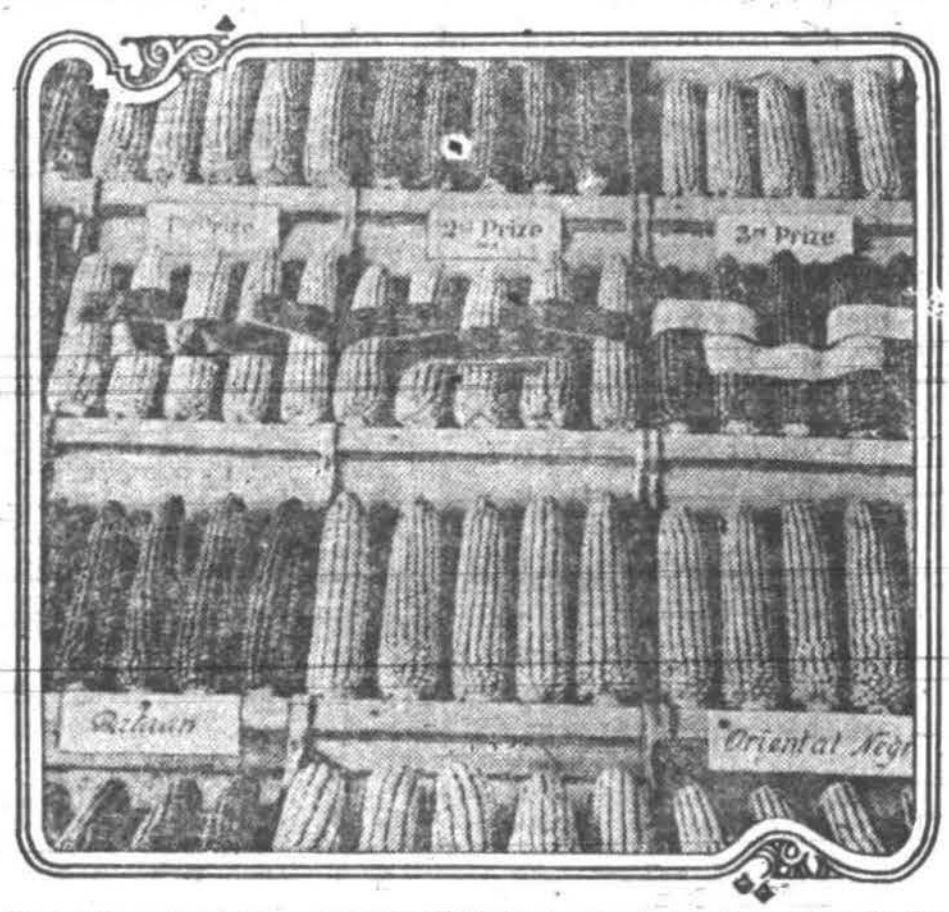
Let Us Show You What We Can Do

How Would You Like to Harvest Two Crops of Corn a Year as They Do in the Philippines?



No, reader, this corn was not grown by one of our local farmers! It wasn't grown in the United States, even. It was grown in the faroff Philippine Islands by Filipino schoolboys. Two fine crops of corn a year are produced in the Islands.

The Philippines are doing some wonderful things in the agricultural line. The Philippine government has fine agricultural schools throughout the islands, and the Philippine legislature, composed entirely of Filipinos, is each year making larger and larger appropriations for this important work.

The staple food of the islands is rice, but corn is coming right along in popular favor. Its use was given great impetus in the last year because of a rice shortage. Other important Philippine crops are hemp, sugar cane, cocoanuts, coffee, tapioca and pineapples. Lumber is also an important industry.

There are hundreds of thousands of acres of land lying idle in the Philippines, which have a greater area of fertile land than Japan—this in spite of the fact that the population of the Philippines is 11,000,000 while that of Japan is around 55,000,000. There is every reason to believe that some day the Philippines will have a population as large as that of Japan today. The Filipinos are the only Christian people in the orient, and their young men are working night and day to prepare themselves for the responsibility of citizenship in the Philippine Republic which they believe to be near at hand.

A MISREPRESENTED RACE.

The Filipino people are a much misrepresented race. The frequent publication of pictures of semi-naked Mindanao Moros and Igorotes has caused a great many Americans to believe they are typical of the inhabitants of the Philippines. Such is far from the case, however. Of 11,000,000 inhabitants of the islands, 10,500,000 are a Christian, civilized people with a culture and refinement that will compare very favorably with that of other nations. The Filipino women are exceptionally modest. A street flirtation in Manila, so far as a Filipino woman is concerned, is something that is almost unknown, as any American that has visited Manila will testify.

The Wonders of America
By T. T. MAXEY

THE CATHEDRAL OF ST. JOHN, THE DIVINE.

THE corner stone of this great Episcopal house of worship, which crowns Morningside Heights in New York city, was laid on December 27, 1892. This church was designed to be the largest and most costly church edifice in America and the fourth largest in the world, St. Peters at Rome and the cathedrals at Seville, Spain and Milan, Italy, only being larger. It will be over 600 feet long and its greatest width 300 feet. The total cost will exceed $10,000,000, and although it has been under construction for more than twenty-six years, no one can now say when it will be completed.

The architecture is of the French gothic style. The plans for the great organ call for 7,000 pipes and a chime. The crypt will seat 500 and the altar is to contain 150,000 pieces of mosaic glass. It will contain seven chapels of tongues: St. Martin of Tours or Huguenot chapel, representing the French rite; St. James or Spanish chapel, representing the Mozarabic rite; St. Ambroze, representing the Italian rite; St. Saviour, representing the Oriental rite; St. Columba or Scots chapel, representing the British rite; St. Boniface or Holland chapel, representing the German rite, and St. Ausgarius or Swedish chapel, representing the Scandinavian rite. There is to be also an open-air pulpit with a 40-foot high spire and ornamentations in gothic structures.

Donations, large and small, have come from every conceivable source and direction, to assist in the erection of that which is to be America's greatest cathedral—a cathedral for the people in America's greatest city.

Every Person Who Had Income in 1919 Must Determine Own Liability.

MARCH 15 LAST FILING DATE.

Surest Way Is to Follow Form 1040A. Free Advice in Doubtful Cases. Severe Penalties in Law.

Nobody is exempt from Income Tax. An obligation is laid directly on the shoulders of each citizen and resident to consider his own case and to get his return in on time if one is due.

With each return showing a tax due a payment must accompany the return in the full amount of the tax or at least one-quarter of the tax.

All returns for 1919 must be filed on or before March 15.

Must Show True Figures.

In figuring up his earnings for income tax purposes a person must take into consideration all items of taxable income, and each item itself must be accurate in amount. Guesses and estimates must be avoided, for the return is made under oath.

Everybody who had an income during 1919 must now determine whether his or her net income was sufficient in amount to require an Income Tax return. The best way to find out is to get a Form 1040A and follow the instructions printed on it. That form will serve as a reminder of every item of income; and if a return is due, it tells how to prepare and file it.

One of the important points to keep in mind is that a person's net income is found by a computation prescribed in the law, and that each item of income from every source must be considered, unless specifically exempted.

Another thing to remember is that the personal exemption allowed taxpayers by law has no relation whatever to the requirement to file return. This exemption is not to be considered until a person has figured out his net income and determined whether it was sufficient to require him to file a return. Then, if a return must be filed, he should read carefully the instructions for claiming exemption, and complete his return.

If in doubt on any point as to income or deductions, a person may secure free advice and aid from the nearest Internal Revenue office. Many banks and trust companies are also furnishing similar service during banking hours.

Heavy Penalties in Law.

For failing to make a return on time the penalty is a fine of not more than $1,000 and an addition of 25 per cent to the tax, if any. For making a false or fraudulent return the penalty is a fine of not more than $10,000 or imprisonment not exceeding one year, or both; and, in addition, 50 per cent of the tax. There are other penalties for failing to pay tax when due and for understatement of the tax through negligence.

Many Sources of Income.

Aside from what one may earn by his services, there are many other sources of income. If he sold any property during 1919 he must figure out the gain realized. If he rented buildings, land, apartments or rooms such rents must be considered taxable, and he may claim deductions for necessary expenses incidental to rents.

Bank interest is a common source of income and is taxable whether withdrawn or not. Any amount of interest credited to a depositor is income to the depositor.

Interest on mortgages and notes is taxable; also bond interest received from corporations.

A taxpayer who cashed his insurance during 1919 must report as income any excess received over the total of premiums paid.

Members of partnerships or personal service corporations or beneficiaries of an estate or trust must report their shares of income distributable to them whether or not actually withdrawn.

Dividends of domestic corporations must be reported. Many other forms of income are taxable, unless specifically exempted.

Cleveland H. Dodge Shows What Near East Relief Can Do in Efficient Purchasing.

Buying in wholesale lots and under the most favorable market conditions, Near East Relief of 1 Madison avenue, New York city, with representatives in every state of the Union, has been able to baffle the high cost of living so far as relief supplies for the suffering millions of the Near East are concerned.

Cleveland H. Dodge, treasurer, in a statement shows that the committee is able to provide food for the suffering people of the Near East at prices much lower than the average charge here.

A donation of $5 per month will provide food for one orphan, $10 per month provides not only food, but also clothes and shelter for one orphan, and for $15 per month attendance at school is assured to each orphan in addition to food, clothing and shelter.

In the appeal for funds to save the starving remnants of the Armenians and other western Asia peoples, Near East Relief is inviting the American public to "adopt" an orphan at the rates given here. Over 250,000 homeless children are in need of help in the Near East. Women's organizations, lodges, churches and social clubs are responding to the appeal by adopting quotas of orphans for support over a definite period.
